Full job description

Your new company

This business is a well established and phenomenally successful brand that is clearly the leader in their field. They set the standard in quality and service and are currently riding high on their success.

Due to booming demand, there is an immediate need for a commercially focused Project Accountant, with a proven history in residential land developments, to join a dedicated team.

Your new role

With a focus on controlling project costs, this role is a real opportunity for an all round performer to take ownership of a huge project. Preparing project feasibility studies is a vital component of this role, as is accurate and timely analysis of project financials.

In order to be successful in this role, you will be able to manage key relationships with internal and external stakeholders and communicate effectively with people at all levels.

What you'll need to succeed

You must have a proven ability to deliver results in residential land development and a strong understanding of project accounting. You will be a proactive professional with a true commercial understanding of the industry that you work in.

What you'll get in return

This is a full time permanent position in Bendigo CBD in a hard working inclusive team as part of a larger national organisation. There is opportunity for career growth and added responsibility as the company continues to expand.
